THE ANNUAL FINANCIAL MANAGEMENT CONFERENCE

FEBRUARY 2, 1977

THE STAYLER HILTON HOTEL
WASHINGTON, D.C.

This conference is sponsored by the Joint Financial Management Improvement Program (JFMIP), a joint undertaking of the Office of Management and Budget, the Department of the Treasury, the General Accounting Office, and the Civil Service Commission working in cooperation with each other and with the operating agencies. The objective of JFMIP is to improve and coordinate financial management policies throughout the Government to achieve effective and efficient planning and operation of government programs.

Why have there been so many simultaneous major developments affecting financial managers. These include:

- Transition to a new national administration.
- Growing demands on budgets at all levels of government.
- Major fiscal problems in cities.
- Intense public concern about the high cost of government and the accountability of government officials.
- Recent major changes in the congressional budget process.
- Proposals for sunset laws and zero-base budgeting.
- Continuing advances in automatic data processing and communications technology.
